Dear Fred:

Account number:

Review status: Vehicle/Vessel Contract Application

IVIPS account information access denied:

Upon careful review of the information provided on your application, we determined that yours is not one of the permissible uses under which release of this information is allowed, pursuant to the federal law called the Driver's Privacy Protection Act (DPPA), 18 USC Sections 2721 and 2725; and state laws RCW 46.12.630, RCW 46.12.635 and WAC 308-10-050(3). On your application, you stated as your reason for access:

- A person was parking in a reserved stall, we did not know who owned the vehicle, the vehicle was towed and the person came later and couldn't find their car, if we had been able to know who she was we could have let her know and she could have gotten her car from the tow yard during the day rather than after hours late in the evening.
- Vehicles that have been parked for several months on one of our parking lots are taking up parking, while we could have the vehicle towed, we would like to contact the vehicle owners and have them move the vehicles rather than having them towed.
- A vehicle parked in one the garages is leaking fluid and we would want to contact the owner, however, the vehicle isn't registered in the Microsoft system so we have to tow off the property but if we could look up the owner by the license plate we could contact that person and let them know of the problem.

This use is not permissible according to the DPPA, 18 USC, section 2721, 3(A)(B) which allows access to personal vehicle owner information only to: 3) "For use in the normal course of business by a legitimate business or its agents, employees, or contractors, but only-(A) To verify the accuracy of personal information submitted by the individual to the business or its agents, employees, or contractors; and (B) If such information as so submitted is not correct or is no longer correct, to obtain the correct information, but only for the purposes of preventing fraud by, pursuing legal remedies against, or recovering on a debt or security interest against, the individual."

*We are committed to providing equal access to our services.
If you need accommodation, please call 360-902-3600 or TTY 360-664-0116.*
